Change of Education Level

F-1 students are allowed to make changes to their education level within 60 days after graduation from their program of study or OPT end date.

By completing this form, you will receive a new I-20 stating your new education level (Undergraduate/Bachelor's or Graduate/Master's) and a new program start and end dates. Your program information will be updated on NYC's records to allow registration.

Eligibility for a Change of Education Level:

1. You are within the 60 day period following graduation from your program
2. You are in Active status
3. Submit proof of your graduation and acceptance into the new program of study.
4. Submit updated financial documents that indicated your ability to meet the financial obligations of the new education level.(http://www.dyc.edu/admissions/international/docs/iso_financial_form.pdf)
