SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Sexual misconduct/assault/harassment is illegal under both federal and state law and is also a form of sex discrimination which is also illegal under federal laws Title VII (employees) and Title IX (students) and the New York State Human Rights

Law. The Title IX coordinators are Debbie Owens, who may be reached at owensde@dyc.edu (716.829.8198, College Center room 111) or Linda Moretti who may be reached at moretil@dyc.edu (716.829.7811, Niagara St. room 206). Pursuant to the aforementioned laws, in keeping with the Clery Act, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013, and other applicable law and in keeping with our institutional values the college has established a sexual misconduct policy. The policy, in its entirety may be found at: <http://www.dyc.edu/campus-life/support-services/safety-and-security.aspx>

Affirmative Consent

Consent to sexual activity must be affirmative consent. Affirmative consent is a knowing, voluntary, and mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other sexual act. Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.

Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated, which occurs when an individual lacks the ability to knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, or if an individual otherwise cannot consent. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent.

Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of harm.

Consent may be initially given but withdrawn at any time. When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given, sexual activity must stop.

College officials will work in close cooperation with the impacted party(s) and local law enforcement agencies to address any violations of the college's sexual misconduct policy. The college will change an impacted party's academic and living situations after an alleged sex offense if these changes are requested by the impacted party.

If, after an investigation, the respondent is found responsible for sexual misconduct appropriate sanctions will be imposed to address the misconduct, prevent its reoccurrence and remedy its effects while supporting the college's educational mission and Title IX obligations. Sanctions may also serve to promote safety or deter students or employees from similar future behavior.

Sanctions include:

- Termination from the college or college employment
- Expulsion
- Suspension
- Reprimand/warning
- Mandatory leave of absence
- Probation
- Counseling
- Restitution

The notation will be applied along with the date it was imposed. For the respondent who withdraws from the college while such conduct charges are pending and declines to complete the disciplinary process, institutions may make a notation on the transcript of such students that they "withdrew with conduct charges pending." The University may also choose to adjudicate such cases in a student's absence. A suspended student may petition removal of a transcript notation only after the student's suspension term has ended. Members of the college community who violate this policy will be subject to discipline. Taking into account the circumstances of each case, sanctions for students and employees may range from warnings to termination. At the direction of the college, as an alternative to, or in addition to any disciplinary action taken, students or employees may be required to participate in and to satisfactorily complete an appropriate counseling or rehabilitation program. Records of such discipline may be maintained in a student's record or an employee's personnel file. Enforcement of these sanctions will be through the college's existing disciplinary procedures for students and employees of the college as appropriate.

Amnesty for Alcohol and/or Drug Use Violations

The health and safety of every student at the college is of utmost importance. The college recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or using drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that violence (including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault) occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. The college strongly encourages students to report domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to college officials. A student who is a bystander acting in good faith or a reporting individual acting in good faith that discloses any incident of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to the college's officials or law enforcement will not be subject to disciplinary action by the college for violations of alcohol and/or drug use policies occurring at or near the time of the commission of the domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault.

Applicable Laws, Ordinances and Regulations on Bias Related Crimes: New York State Penal Law, Article 485 Hate Crimes: 485.00 Legislative findings.

"...the legislature finds and determines as follows: criminal acts involving violence, intimidation and destruction of property based upon bias and prejudice have become more prevalent in New York State in recent years. The intolerable truth is that in these crimes, commonly and justly referred to as hate crimes, victims are intentionally selected, in whole or in part because of their race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation...our laws must be strengthened to provide clear recognition of the gravity of hate crimes and the compelling importance of preventing their recurrence."

A person commits a hate crime when he/she commits a specified offense and either intentionally selects the person against whom the offense is committed or intentionally commits the act or acts constituting the offense in whole, or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct
